PLAYER DEVELOPMENT CENTER REFLECTS TEAM'S COMMITMENT TO A Championship Culture

Cleveland Clinic Courts opened in September 2007 as the Cleveland Cavaliers $25 million state-of-the-art player development center. This investment reflected Cavaliers majority owner Dan Gilbert's commitment to establish a championship culture for the team and players. Fifteen years later, Cleveland Clinic Courts continues to be one of the top player training and development facilities in the NBA.

Key Features: Two adjacent regulation NBA courts with a total of six hoops; 3,500 square foot strength and conditioning training area that overlooks the playing courts; a rehabilitation center that features a 2,500-gallon hot and cold tub, a 5,000-gallon underwater treadmill and cryotherapy chamber; a large theater-style team meeting room; three spacious locker rooms for Cavaliers players, staff and visiting teams.

Technology: Both practice courts include on-court video monitors with replay feature; wireless internet throughout the facility and MP3 outlets in all areas; designated areas for media to view practice and work with full broadcast capabilities, interview locations and wireless internet access; state-of-the-art-video room and player training technology with real-time video monitoring capabilities to view players during workouts; practice and game archives and live video of practice are accessible from all offices, conference rooms and training areas throughout the facility for players and coaches.

Full Facility.....	50,000 sq. ft.
Underground Parking.....	14,100 sq. ft.
Practice Courts.....	17,300 sq. ft.

The Cleveland Clinic, a global leader in healthcare and the No. 2-ranked hospital in the country according to U.S. News & World Report, not only offers its name but brings its expertise to the facility itself. Team trainers and physicians can view x-rays, MRIs, cat scans, bone scans and lab reports as if they were in the actual hospital. This gives team physicians the opportunity to educate players and allows the team to make better healthcare decisions and tend to individual player needs more expeditiously.

Community Involvement: The Cavaliers organization is deeply involved in the Greater Cleveland community and is committed to positively impacting the lives of children and families in Northeast Ohio through a comprehensive program of outreach initiatives. Throughout the year, students and youth groups are invited to tour Cleveland Clinic Courts for the opportunity to engage with players and coaches in programs designed to address important social issues with an emphasis on education, youth and family development and health-related issues.

BASKETBALL STAFF

KOBY ALTMAN President of Basketball Operations

Koby Altman was elevated to President of Basketball Operations of the Cleveland Cavaliers in January 2022. He manages and oversees all aspects of scouting, personnel, player acquisitions and transactions, and all team operations. Altman also oversees the Cavaliers' exclusive NBA G League affiliate, the Cleveland Charge. With community involvement being integral to Altman's focus with the team, he also guides the team's player appearance committee in partnership with the business side of the Cavs organization.

Altman, who was hired as the 11th general manager in Cavaliers history on July 24, 2017, has helped transform the basketball operations department and Cavaliers roster with the signing of key free agents and acquiring draft assets and players via trade. Under Altman, the Cavaliers have made 24 total trades and 14 in-season trades, including three in-season moves that helped propel the team to their fourth straight Eastern Conference Championship in just his first season as GM. Since Altman and the Cavaliers' 2018 NBA Finals run, he has accumulated 21 draft picks.

With lottery picks Darius Garland (No. 5 in 2019), Isaac Okoro (No. 5 in 2020) and Evan Mobley (No. 3 in 2021), Altman has built a strong young core in the NBA Draft despite having only one pick inside the Top 5. Mobley and Okoro were both named All-Rookie Team selections in their respective years. Mobley was also the runner-up for the 2021-22 NBA Rookie of the Year award and a unanimous All-Rookie First Team selection. Garland, who Altman signed to a multi-year contract extension this summer, has become one of the league's top guards, a 2022 NBA All-Star and just the second player in Cavaliers history to average at least 20.0 points and 8.0 assists, joining LeBron James. Most recently, Altman added to the team's young nucleus by acquiring three-time NBA All-Star Donovan Mitchell, who comes to Cleveland as the sixth player in NBA history to total over 8,000 points, 1,500 assists and 1,400 rebounds through their first career 345 contests, along with LeBron James, Dwyane Wade, Michael Jordan, Pete Maravich and Oscar Robertson.

Altman has created a roster that has helped the team increase their overall record in three straight NBA seasons, including doubling their win total in 2021-22 with a 44-38 record. He tied for the runner-up for the 2021-22 NBA Basketball Executive of the Year award. Cleveland's win percentage this past regular season (.537) also increased by .231 from 2020-21 (.306, 22-50), the second-largest increase in the NBA (Minnesota, +.242). A big reason for the team's success was Altman naming J.B. Bickerstaff Head Coach in June of 2020 and then signing him to a multi-year contract extension last December. Bickerstaff guided the team to the NBA's fifth-best defensive rating (108.9) in 2021-22. In addition to their strong draft picks over the past four years, Altman made a move to acquire 24-year-old center Jarrett Allen, who averaged career highs across the board and was an NBA All-Star this past season, and signed him to a five-year contract extension in August 2021. Altman also acquired versatile wing guard Caris LeVert last season, who was coming off a career-best 20.2 points per game in 2020-21. Most recently, the Cavaliers signed veteran players Ricky Rubio, Robin Lopez and Raul Neto, strengthening a veteran core that also includes five-time NBA All-Star Kevin Love, who was runner-up for 2022 NBA Sixth Man of the Year honors.

Prior to being named GM, Altman had been a part of the Cavaliers' basketball staff for five years, including being promoted to assistant general manager in September 2016. As a member of Cleveland's front office, Altman has been an integral part of a team that reached four straight NBA Finals (2015-2018) and won an NBA Championship in 2016. He originally joined the Cavaliers as pro personnel manager in August 2012 and was promoted to director of pro player personnel in September 2013.

The 40-year-old has extensive experience with the USA Basketball program. In the summer of 2010, he served as the Team Manager for USA Basketball's Under-17 team at the inaugural FIBA Under-17 World Championship in Hamburg, Germany. That 17-and-under squad won the first gold medal to ever be awarded for that age group and featured three players selected among the top 10 in the 2012 NBA Draft. In 2009, he assisted Team USA's 19-and-under team in the FIBA Under-19 World Championship in Auckland, New Zealand. That squad also won the gold, its first in that age group since 1991.

Prior to joining the Cavaliers, Altman served as an assistant coach at The Ivy League's Columbia University for two seasons, where he also led Columbia's developmental basketball program. He spent the 2009-10 season at Southern Illinois as a graduate assistant after earning his master's degree in sport management at the University of Massachusetts. While earning his degree at UMASS, he coached at nearby Amherst College for two seasons and helped guide the team to a 48-11 record.

Altman, a Brooklyn, New York native, played collegiately at Middlebury College, where he was a three-year starter at point guard and recently named to the college's Board of Trustees. Altman is also on the National Board of Directors for the Posse Foundation, which identifies, recruits and trains individuals with extraordinary leadership potential, providing full-tuition leadership scholarships from Posse's partner colleges and universities. In August 2020, Altman along with Bickerstaff and head coaches and front office executives from Cleveland's three major professional sports teams - the Cavaliers, Cleveland Browns and Cleveland Indians- formed the Cleveland Sports Alliance to develop a sustainable and direct strategy to address social injustice facing the city of Cleveland and all Northeast Ohio communities. The Alliance also focuses on improving the relationship between law enforcement and its citizens, encouraging nonpartisan voting activities and increasing the opportunities for quality education for everyone.

COACHING STAFF

J.B. BICKERSTAFF

Head Coach

J.B. Bickerstaff was named head coach of the Cleveland Cavaliers on February 19, 2020, thus becoming the 23rd head coach in franchise history. Under Bickerstaff, the Cavaliers have increased their overall record in three straight NBA seasons, including doubling their win total in 2021-22 with a 44-38 record. Cleveland's win percentage this past regular season (.537) also increased by .231 from 2020-21 (.306, 22-50), the second-largest increase in the NBA (Minnesota, +.242). Additionally, Bickerstaff guided Cleveland to the NBA's fifth-best defensive rating (108.9) and finished fifth place in the league's Coach of the Year voting in 2021-22.

Bickerstaff, who signed a multi-year contract extension in December 2021, has established a coaching staff that has been instrumental in the development of the Cavaliers young core. Evan Mobley and Isaac Okoro both were All-Rookie Team selections in their respective rookie seasons, and Jarrett Allen and Darius Garland averaged career highs across the board in 2021-22 and were first-time NBA All-Stars. Mobley, the No. 3 pick in the 2021 NBA Draft, was also the runner-up for the Rookie of the Year award and a unanimous All-Rookie First Team selection. The team's ranking in defensive rating also jumped from 25th place to fifth in 2021-22. Bickerstaff also earned NBA Eastern Conference Coach of the Month honors for January 2022 after leading the team to an 11-4 record, the franchise's best mark in a single month since November 2017.

When Bickerstaff first took over the helm shortly after the 2020 All-Star break, the Cavs posted a 5-6 (.455) record before their season ended, including consecutive season series sweeps over the Denver Nuggets and San Antonio Spurs. In addition, the Cavs notched three wins against above .500 teams (Miami, Philadelphia and Denver) and averaged 111.4 points and 26.4 assists (eighth-best in NBA). The Wine & Gold also had the fifth-highest field goal percentage in the NBA after the break that season (.480).

Bickerstaff, 43, originally joined the Cavaliers as the team's associate head coach prior to the 2019-20 season. Before coming to Cleveland, he was the Memphis Grizzlies head coach for the 2018-19 season, following serving as the interim head coach for the final 63 games of the 2017-18 Grizzlies campaign. In 2018-19, Bickerstaff helped Memphis record the third-best scoring defense in the NBA, holding opponents to 106.1 points per game. The Grizzlies also held an NBA-high 10 opponents under 90 points that season and went undefeated in those games. Memphis limited 17 opponents to under 40 percent shooting, which was tied with Utah for the second-most in the NBA in 2018-19.

Prior to his stint with Memphis, Bickerstaff spent five seasons (2011-16) with the Houston Rockets, where he was elevated to interim head coach early in the 2015-16 season and guided the Rockets to a 37-34 finish to close the season with a postseason berth.

Bickerstaff's additional experience as an assistant coach includes four seasons (2007-11) with the Minnesota Timberwolves and three seasons (2004-07) with the Charlotte Bobcats under his father and current Cavaliers Senior Basketball Advisor, Bernie Bickerstaff. The youngest assistant coach in the NBA at age 24 when he began with the Bobcats in 2004-05, Bickerstaff followed in the footsteps of his father, who was the youngest assistant coach when he joined the NBA at 29 years old in 1973.

Prior to his time on the NBA sidelines, Bickerstaff served as director of operations for the University of Minnesota's men's basketball program, overseeing all administrative areas of the program and assisting the coaching staff with recruiting, scouting and coaching. Bickerstaff played two seasons (1999-2001) with the Golden Gophers to complete his collegiate career after playing his first two years at Oregon State University, where he was the youngest Division I player as a 17-year-old freshman.

Bickerstaff and his wife Nikki have three children: Blair, Blakely and Blade.

Playoff Moments

A Miracle

The first playoff series in franchise history was a matchup against the Washington Bullets in 1976. The seven-game series was highlighted by three last-second game-winning shots by the Cavaliers, who went on to win 4-3 in the series that became known as the "Miracle of Richfield."

What a Show

In Game 5 of the 2007 Eastern Conference Finals, one of the greatest playoff performances in NBA history was on display. In the last 16 minutes of a double-overtime 109-107 win, LeBron James scored 29 of Cleveland's 30 points, including the team's final 25 points. The Cavs would go on to close out the series in Game 6 in Cleveland and advance to their first-ever NBA Finals.

41 APIECE

Trailing 3-1 in the 2016 NBA Finals, the Cavs avoided elimination by defeating the Golden State Warriors, 112-97, in Game 5. Kyrie Irving (41 pts, 17-24 FG, 5-7 3FG, 6 asts) and LeBron James (41 pts, 16-30 FG, 4-8 3FG, 16 rebs, 7 asts, 3 stls, 3 blks) came up huge as they became the first teammates in NBA Finals history to score 40 points apiece. The win was an historical moment for Cleveland, who ended up winning the next two games en route to their first-ever NBA championship.

To The Eastern Conference Finals

The Cavaliers advanced to their first Conference Finals since 1976 after defeating the Boston Celtics 4-3 in the 1992 NBA Playoffs. In Game 7 of their semifinals win, six players scored in double figures for the Cavs, who shot .590 from the field and finished with a franchise postseason-record 42 assists on 49 baskets.

Finals in The Land

The Cavaliers played their first NBA Finals game in Cleveland on June 12, 2007 when they faced off against the San Antonio Spurs. This would be the first of five NBA Finals appearances for the Cavaliers.

2018-19

Season Highlights

Final Record: 19-63

Finished: 5th Place in Division

Head Coach: Tyrone Lue 0-6 Larry Drew 19-57

Cleveland suited up a franchise-record 27 different players during the 2018-19 season, which was just shy of the NBA record held by the Memphis Grizzlies (28 players in 2018-19 and 2015-16). The Cavs also had an NBA-high 32 different starting lineups. Larry Drew took over the helm after the Cavaliers released Head Coach Tyrone Lue on Oct. 28. Collin Sexton earned All-Rookie Second Team honors after playing in all 82 contests and ranking in the Top 5 among rookies in double-digit scoring games (73), FT% (1st, .839), games played (tied-1st, 82), 3FG% (2nd, .402), MPG (2nd, 31.8), PPG (3rd, 16.7), FG% (4th, .430) and APG (5th, 3.0). He also became just the third rookie in league history to average at least 16.0 PPG, while shooting .400 from beyond the arc and .800 from the free throw line (Larry Bird in 1979-80 and Stephen Curry in 2009-10). Jordan Clarkson scored in double figures 72 times, which ended up being the most among all NBA bench players in 2018-19. His 1,364 points was also the highest among reserves in franchise history, surpassing Campy Russell (1,210 PTS in 1975-76). The Cavs' bench set a franchise-record with 42.6 points per game.

Season Highlights

Final Record: 19-46

Finished: 5th Place in Division

Head Coach: John Beilein 14-40 J.B. Bickerstaff 5-6

J.B. Bickerstaff took over duties as head coach on Feb. 19. After taking over the helm, Bickerstaff led the Cavs to a 5-6 (.455) record, as the team averaged 111.4 points and 26.4 assists (eighth-best in NBA) over that span. The Wine & Gold also had the 5th-highest field goal percentage in the NBA after the All-Star break (.480). Collin Sexton, who finished to season averaging a team-high 20.8 points, joined LeBron James and Kyrie Irving as the only players in franchise history to average at least 20.0 points before the age of 22. His stellar play earned him a spot on the U.S. Team during the 2020 NBA Rising Stars event at All-Star Weekend in Chicago, which tallied 21 points (9-14 FG, 3-6 3FG) and five rebounds. Darius Garland was the only NBA rookie in 2019-20 with at least 700 points, 225 assists and 100 three-pointers, while Kevin Porter Jr. was the lone rookie averaging at least 10.0 points, 3.0 rebounds and 2.0 assists in under 24.0 minutes in 2019-20. Veterans Kevin Love (17.6 PPG, 9.8 RPG) and Tristan Thompson (12.0 PPG, 10.1 RPG) both had strong seasons in 2019-20. On Feb. 6, the Cavaliers acquired two-time NBA All-Star Andre Drummond, who went on to average a career-high 17.7 points, an NBA-leading 15.2 rebounds, a career-high 1.91 steals and 1.63 blocks in 33.0 minutes per game.

Season Highlights

Final Record: 22-50

Finished: 4th Place in Division

Head Coach: J.B. Bickerstaff

The Cavaliers finished the season averaging 7.76 steals, their highest since the 2012-13 season (7.89). Cleveland also recorded their most blocks per game average since 2009-10 (4.51). Additionally, the Wine & Gold ranked 6th in the NBA in points in the paint at 51.1. Collin Sexton put up career highs in points (24.5, 18th-best in NBA), assists (4.4), steals (1.03) and minutes (35.5) and became just the fifth player in franchise history to record 24.0 ppg in a single season (LeBron James, Kyrie Irving, World B. Free, Mike Mitchell). Isaac Okoro earned NBA All-Rookie Second Team honors and joined LeBron James and Kyrie Irving as the only players in team history to tally at least 500 points, 50 three-points, 50 steals and 20 blocks in their rookie season. Darius Garland received three votes for the NBA's Most Improved Player award after becoming just one of four players in the NBA who averaged at least 17.0 points and 6.0 assists while shooting .390 from three and .840 from the foul line in 2020-21 (Damian Lillard, Kyrie Irving, Kyle Lowry). The Cavaliers acquired center Jarrett Allen and forward Taurean Prince in January. Allen went on to average a double-double in a single season for the first time of his career (12.9 PPG, 10.0 RPG).

Nate Thurmond (No. 42)
Height: 6-11 Weight: 235
Position: Center
Jersey Retired: 11/28/1977

Long before Nate Thurmond had arrived to the Cleveland Cavaliers on Nov. 27, 1975 and led the five-year old franchise to its first playoff appearance, he held a warm spot in the hearts of Northeast Ohioans.

Born Nathaniel Thurmond on July 25, 1941 in Akron, Ohio, the 6-foot-11 center starred at Akron's Central Hower High School before attending Bowling Green State University. As a Falcon, Thurmond averaged 17.8 points and 17.0 rebounds over three varsity seasons, earning All-American honors as a senior in 1963.

Drafted by the San Francisco Warriors with the third overall pick in the 1963 NBA Draft, Thurmond learned behind Wilt Chamberlain for a full season before the Warriors traded Chamberlain midway through the following season, clearing room for Thurmond to flourish. A dominant defensive player whom Chamberlain and Kareem Abdul-Jabbar both credited as their toughest defender, Thurmond was named to the NBA All-Defensive First or Second-Team on five occasions (1969, '71-'74) and was honored as an NBA All-Star seven times (1965-68, '70, '73-'74). Thurmond is also acknowledged in NBA history as the first player to ever record a quadruple-double.

Thurmond was traded to the Chicago Bulls after 11 seasons as a Warrior and two trips to the NBA Finals (1964 and 1967). Thurmond spent two seasons in Chicago before the Cavaliers acquired the center for Steve Patterson and Eric Fernsten.

Home in Ohio again, Thurmond led the 1975-76 Cavaliers team that started 6-11 without him to a 43-22 finish and the playoffs, helping give birth to the season better known as "the Miracle of Richfield".

The following season would be Thurmond's last as he retired at the end of the season. He was inducted in the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame in 1984 and named to the NBA 50th Anniversary All-Time Team in 1996.

The Cavaliers retired his jersey on Dec. 18, 1977.

Bobby "Bingo" Smith (No. 7)
Height: 6-6 Weight: 195
Position: Small Forward
Jersey Retired: 12/4/79

On May 11, 1970, the Cleveland Cavaliers drafted 11 players in the 1970 Expansion Draft. Two never put on a Cavaliers uniform. Of the remaining nine, all but one played four seasons or less in Cleveland.

The one, Bobby Smith, played 10 seasons and over 700 games with the Cavaliers, helping to shape and mold the young expansion team into playoff contenders.

Better known as "Bingo", Smith spent his rookie season with the San Diego Rockets before being selected by the Cavaliers in the Expansion Draft. Smith and his patented "rainbow jumper" became bright spots through Cleveland's early years as the team quickly improved. With each passing season, the versatile small forward remained a constant and consistent performer, even leading the 1974-75 Cavaliers that finished 40-42 and one game out of the playoffs in scoring at 15.9 points per game.

The following season, Cleveland made the playoffs for the first time and Smith added a bit of magic to the season that has become known as the "Miracle of Richfield". With home-court advantage already lost and the Cavaliers trailing in their first round series against the favored Washington Bullets, 0-1, Smith and his rainbow jumpers helped Cleveland find a pot of gold. In Washington for Game 2, Smith scored a team-leading 17 points and made the game-winning shot with just seconds remaining to secure the 80-79 victory. The win served as the first playoff victory for the franchise and propelled the Cavaliers past the Bullets and into the Eastern Conference Finals against Boston where they eventually fell in six games.

Smith played four more seasons in Cleveland, helping guide the Cavaliers to the playoffs two more times before finishing his career with the San Diego Clippers for one season.

"Bingo" ranks in the top 10 all-time in franchise history in six different categories: games played (4th), field goals made (3rd), field goals attempted (3rd), minutes played (5th) and points scored (6th).

The Cavaliers retired his jersey on Dec. 4, 1979.

Austin Carr (No. 34)
Height: 6-4 Weight: 200
Position: Shooting Guard
Jersey Retired: 1/3/81

Going into their second season as a franchise, the Cleveland Cavaliers held the No. 1 overall pick in the 1971 NBA Draft and aimed to get an impact player. With their pick, the Cavaliers selected Austin Carr, a high-scoring shooting guard and two-time All-American at Notre Dame.

Carr proved not only to be the impact player the Cavaliers sought, but much more.

As a rookie, Carr immediately became the top option on offense, averaging 21.2 points and becoming the first Cavalier named to the All-NBA Rookie Team. Known as "A.C." by teammates and fans alike, the sweet-shooting fan favorite averaged 20 or more points the following two seasons, highlighted by Carr's selection as an All-Star in 1974.

Just as Carr began to reach elite status in the NBA, misfortune struck. On Dec. 5, 1974, Carr suffered a knee injury that eventually cut short his season and forced him to undergo surgery.

Carr persevered and returned strong, playing in all 82 games in three of the following four seasons. Even after the injury, Carr's impact as a scorer and leader remained present as he never averaged less than double-digits in his career and led the Cavaliers to the playoffs on three occasions during his nine-year tenure in Cleveland.

After the 1979-80 season, Carr's final with the Cavaliers, he won the Walter Kennedy Citizenship Award for his substantial contributions to the Cleveland community.

Carr is placed second in field goals made and attempted and ranks fourth in points scored among all players to don a Cavaliers uniform. He also ranks among the franchise leaders in free throws made (6th) and attempted (5th) and minutes played (6th).

For his efforts on and off the floor, Carr was selected by 32 members of the media in Northeast Ohio to the Cavaliers' All-Time Starting Five during the Cavaliers 30th Anniversary season of 1999-2000.

He remains deeply involved in the organization serving as director of community and business development as well as the full-time analyst for the Cavaliers Television Network.

The Cavaliers retired his jersey on Jan. 3, 1981.

Larry Nance (No. 22)
Height: 6-10 Weight: 235
Position: Power Forward
Jersey Retired on 1/30/95

Undoubtedly, the 1986 NBA Draft that landed the Cavaliers Brad Daugherty, Ron Harper and Mark Price brought a youthful injection of much-needed talent and skilled players to an evolving franchise. The acquisition of the three college stars instantly made the Cavaliers good.

But perhaps it was the final acquisition of power forward Larry Nance that made the Cavaliers go from good to great and led to one of the most successful eras in team history. On Feb. 25, 1988, Cleveland sent Kevin Johnson, Mark West, Tyrone Corbin, a first-round draft choice in 1988 and two second-round picks to Phoenix in exchange for Nance, Mike Sanders and Detroit's first-round pick in 1988.

Known as "Leapin' Larry" for the dunking prowess that made him the first-ever Slam Dunk Champion in 1984 and his strong shot-blocking skills, Nance brought his high-flying, power game and six years of experience to a team in desperate need of a veteran.

Nance filled the void remarkably, helping the Cavaliers make the playoffs by winning 11 of their final 13 games that season.

The following season was one of the best in franchise history as the Cavaliers won a then franchise-best 57 games (which was later tied by the 1991-92 team that Nance also starred on) and went 37-4 at home. Nance was named an NBA All-Star for the first of two times in 1989 and was joined on the squad by Daugherty, Price and Head Coach Lenny Wilkens.

Spearheaded by the trio of Nance, Daugherty and Price, the Cavaliers made the playoffs in each season the group played together besides 1990-91, where Price was limited to just 16 games after tearing his ACL.

A tenacious defender, Nance is one of only two players in franchise history to be named to the All-Defensive First Team (1988-89) and the only Cavalier to make the All-Defensive teams three times (1988-89, 91-92 and 92-93).

He ranks among the Cavaliers all-time leaders in blocked shots (3rd), field goal percentage (3rd), rebounds (9th), field goals made and attempted (9th), minutes played (10th) and free throws made (10th).

Nance was named to the Cavaliers' All-Time Starting Five by 32 members of the Northeast Ohio media during the Cavaliers 30th Anniversary season.

The Cavaliers retired his jersey on Jan. 30, 1995.

Brad Daugherty (No. 43)
Height: 7-0 Weight: 263
Position: Center
Jersey Retired on 3/1/97

10,389 points scored, 5,227 rebounds grabbed, 2,741 free throws made, 3,670 free throws attempted. Five all-star appearances made.

Those numbers represent the various statistics that Brad Daugherty led the Cavaliers franchise in at the time of his retirement and why he is one of the greatest players in franchise history.

The number one overall draft pick of the 1986 NBA Draft, the 7-foot center was pivotal along with then-fellow rookies Ron Harper, John Williams and Mark Price in re-energizing and improving the franchise. The multi-skilled Daugherty was named to the All-Rookie Team and quickly joined elite status as an NBA center.

Daugherty played in the first of five All-Star games in 1988 and then led the Cavaliers to the playoffs for the first time in three seasons that April. The following season Daugherty and the Cavaliers won a then franchise-record 57 games, including going 37-4 at home.

After an injury-plagued 1989-90 season in which Daugherty missed the first 41 games, he returned to All-Star status. He became the first and remains the only player in franchise history to average 20 or more points and 10 or more rebounds in the same season. He reached that feat in three consecutive seasons (1990-93), being named an All-Star in the process each of those years.

In the 1992 NBA Playoffs, Daugherty cemented his place as one of the best in the league by leading the Cavaliers to the Eastern Conference Finals. He averaged 21.5 points on .528 field goal shooting, 10.2 rebounds, 3.4 assists and 1.0 block in 40.4 minutes per game during the 17-game run. In the first round against New Jersey, he scored a then Cavalier playoff-record 40 points on April 23.

Cleveland made the playoffs in all but two of the seasons Daugherty played and he led the Cavaliers in scoring in all but three of his seasons.

Just entering the prime of his career at 28, Daugherty suffered an ill-fated career-ending herniated lumbar disc in mid-February of the 1993-94 season.

Despite having his outstanding career cut short, the North Carolina native had already broken the afore-mentioned Cavalier records. He remains in the top 10 all-time in points (3rd), field goal percentage (2nd), minutes played (4th), field goals made (5th) and field goals attempted (5th), scoring average (7th), assists (7th) and blocked shots (9th).

As part of the Cavaliers 30th Anniversary in 1999-2000, Daugherty was unanimously named by 32 members of the Northeast Ohio media to the Cavaliers' All-Time Starting Five. He was the only player to garner all 32 votes.

The Cavaliers retired his jersey on March 1, 1997.

Mark Price (No. 25)
Height: 6-0 Weight: 180
Position: Point Guard
Jersey Retired 11/13/99

They say lightning doesn't strike twice in the same place, but for the Cavaliers on draft day in 1986, it did.

Prior to the draft on June 17, Cleveland acquired the top overall pick from Philadelphia in exchange for Roy Hinson and considerations.

With the first pick in the 1986 NBA Draft, Cleveland selected center Brad Daugherty.

At the top of the second round, the Dallas Mavericks selected Mark Price with the 25th overall pick. Quickly, the Cavaliers traded their second-round draft pick in 1989 and other considerations with Dallas in exchange for the rights to the 6-foot All-American from Georgia Tech.

Unknowingly then, the Cavaliers acquired two of the greatest players in franchise history that day. Price and Daugherty helped the team turn the corner and join the NBA's elite while becoming the cornerstones of the Cavaliers' franchise.

While Daugherty started as a rookie, Price learned on the bench for a year before unseating John Bagley. Once a starter, Price never looked back.

Widely regarded as one of the best shooters in NBA history, Price and his picture-perfect release guided the Cavaliers to one of their most successful runs in franchise history. With the exception of the 1990-91 season in which he tore his ACL and played only 16 games, the Cavaliers made the playoffs and won at least 42 games every year Price was a starter.

The sweet-shooting point guard was named an All-Star four times (1989, 1992-94) and at the time of his retirement was the only Cavalier to be named to an All-NBA Team more than once (1988-89, 1991-94), including All-NBA First Team in 1992-93.

Price led the NBA in free throw percentage twice (1991-92, '92-93) and won the NBA's Long Distance Shootout in back-to-back years (1993-94).

Not just a shooter, Price ranked in the top 10 in the league in assists in five of his nine seasons as a Cavalier.

For his career, Price ranks first among all Cavaliers in free throw percentage, second in assists and third in three-point field goals made. He also ranks among the top 10 all-time in franchise history in steals (2nd), three-point field goal percentage (4th), points scored (5th), free throws made (5th), field goals made (6th), field goals attempted (6th), games played (9th), minutes played (7th) and free throws attempted (7th).

Price was named to the Cavaliers' All-Time Starting Five by 32 members of the Northeast Ohio media during the Cavaliers 30th Anniversary season. He was also the leading vote-getter on the Cavs All-Time Team, as voted on by the Cleveland fans.

The Cavaliers retired his jersey on November 13, 1999.

Zydrunas Ilgauskas (No. 11)
Height: 7-3 Weight: 260
Position: Center
Jersey Retired: 3/8/14

Aside from his stellar statistics and All-Star appearances, the reason Clevelanders love Zydrunas Ilgauskas is because he shares the same qualities as the city he represented: toughness, endurance, resiliency.

When he was tabbed with the 20th overall pick in the 1996 NBA Draft, Cavalier fans had barely heard of Ilgauskas, who hailed from Kaunas, Lithuania – the birthplace of his idol, Blazers center Arvydas Sabonis.

After missing his first season, undergoing right foot surgery just a few months after being drafted, Big Z played in all 82 games during his "rookie" campaign – one in which he won MVP of the Schick Rookie Challenge at All-Star Weekend and gave Rik Smits and the heavily-favored Pacers all they could handle in the postseason.

But between that season (1997-98) and the 2001-02 campaign, Ilgauskas was limited to just 29 total games, with another pair of foot surgeries in between.

Those injuries and the ensuing rehab might've induced a lesser man to call it a career. But for Ilgauskas, this merely served as a rebirth.

Big Z bounced back to play 62 games in 2001-02 and, the following season, returned to his rookie form – averaging 17.2 points and 7.6 rebounds per game. He notched double-figures in every game but five and was named to his first All-Star Game, joining the East squad in Atlanta.

Over the next seven years with the Cavaliers, Ilgauskas never played less than 64 games in a season – starting 81 games in back-to-back campaigns and, as the team began its ascent in the standings, Z continued to climb through the franchise's all-time record books.

In 2004-05, Big Z had his best season as a pro and, along with his teammate, LeBron James, returned to the All-Star Game. The 7-3 Ilgauskas saw more action than in his first appearance, going 5-for-8 from the floor and 2-of-2 from the stripe for 12 points to go with seven boards and a pair of blocked shots for the East squad.

In his six playoff appearances with the Wine and Gold, Z is tied for second in games played (71), tops the list in offensive rebounds (180) and sits in second place in minutes (2,017), defensive rebounds (343) and total boards (523).

Before wrapping up his career in Cleveland following the 2009-10 season, Ilgauskas (10,616) would go on to become one of just four Cavaliers to have topped the 10,000-point mark, joining Austin Carr (10,265), Daugherty (10,389) and LeBron James (23,119).

One day after breaking the 10,000-point plateau, Big Z swatted four shots against the New Jersey Nets to become the franchise's all-time leader in blocked shots, finishing with 1,269.

Overall, Z – who ranks in the team's top 10 in 12 major categories – is the Cavaliers' all-time leader in offensive rebounds (2,336) and ranks second in total rebounds (5,904). But the all-time mark that best exemplifies Ilgauskas might be the one he set on December 2, 2009, when he passed his friend (and then-general manager) Danny Ferry – playing in his 724th game as a Cavalier.

When his career in Cleveland came to an end, Ilgauskas had suited up for 771 games as a Cavalier, more than any player in franchise history.

Not bad for a player whose career almost ended after two seasons.

The Cavaliers retired his jersey on March 8, 2014.

Austin Carr, Bobby 'Bingo' Smith and the late Nate Thurmond, three members of The Cleveland Cavaliers' 1975-76 "Miracle of Richfield" team.

Cavaliers Wall of Honor

The Wall of Honor program, which debuted during the Cavaliers' 50th season in 2019-20, was created to recognize deserving former members of the franchise and serve as a special, permanent way to honor those who have played such a distinguished, pivotal role in Cavs history.

The Wall of Honor resides prominently in the North Atrium area of the FieldHouse. The large 12'x44' wall features a mosaic of custom designed tiles that represent each honoree. Each new inductee will have two SILVER tiles: one engraved with their name, photo, years with the organization, and their jersey number or role with the team; the other with their name, list of major accomplishments and jersey number/role.

Five individuals who played core roles in the early years of the Cleveland Cavaliers comprised the inaugural 2020 class of the Wall of Honor: Wayne Embry, Bill Fitch, the late John Johnson, Nick Mileti and the late John "Hot Rod" Williams. Four members comprised the 2022 class of honorees: World B. Free, Gordon Gund, Campy Russell and Lenny Wilkens.

The Wall also include GOLD tiles for the eight legends who have previously had their jerseys retired by the Cavs: Austin Carr, Brad Daugherty, Zydrunas Ilgauskas, Larry Nance Sr., Mark Price, Bobby "Bingo" Smith, the late Joe Tait (Cavaliers Hall of Fame radio broadcaster for 39 seasons) and the late Nate Thurmond.

The following are the guidelines for eligibility to be considered for the Cavaliers Wall of Honor:

- Must have been a part of the Cavaliers organization for at least two seasons
- Must be retired from playing or working for the Cavaliers organization for at least five seasons.

They must also exhibit two or more of the following traits as hallmarks of their tenure with the organization:

- Strong personal character that elevated the organization and inspired those around them
- Significant community commitment focused on improving the quality of life in and around the City of Cleveland
- Standout individual game performance and a competitive impact that improved both the team and their teammates
- Be reflective of the "All For One. One For All." commitment throughout the organization

BEHIND THE UNIFORM AND LOGO

Normally, when fans hear about a team's "golden era," it's in reference to the past. But this year, the squad's new look focuses squarely on the franchise's future – and what a bright future it is.

With a young and talented nucleus that features three All-Stars under 26 in the starting lineup – not to mention future star Evan Mobley – the Cavaliers enter their new era with a revamped color palette and some bold new threads.

Earlier in the offseason, led by the team's Creative Director, internationally-renowned contemporary artist Daniel Arsham, the Cavaliers unveiled their new logo set – featuring a secondary "V net" logo which harkens back to the mid-90s and a return to the shiny, reflective metallic gold – a color which first made its appearance in the early '80s and again from 2003-10.

That aurelian glow will be reflected in all three versions of the Cavaliers new uniforms in 2022-23 – Association (white), Icon (wine) and Statement (black) – all uniquely designed with seamless, monochromatic layering around the collar, arms, shorts and waistbands.

The Association uniform is accented in wine and gold and shows off the "V net" logo centerpiece on the jersey top and a large, refreshed primary "Cavs C" logo on the shorts.

The Icon uniform features the new "CLEVELAND" wordmark in gold on the chest, with the primary "Cavs C" logo on the left shorts panel.

The Jordan-branded Statement uniform – inspired by the memorable threads donned during the squad's legendary Championship run in 2016 – displays the "Cavs C" logo on a black shell, with the secondary logo along the side paneling of the shorts.

And of course, all three uniforms feature a gold patch on the back center collar with the number "1" positioned inside a silhouette of the Larry O'Brien trophy – a exclusive feature for teams who've won an NBA championship.

Another additional element to this year's uniforms is a new patch partner – Cleveland-Cliffs, the largest flat-rolled steel producer in North America, expanding an existing multi-year marketing agreement. Cleveland-Cliffs is the only steel company to have a jersey patch partnership within the NBA.

This isn't the first time the Cavaliers have undergone a uniform transformation. They've made myriad changes over the years – from minor tweaks to major overhauls.

Dating back to the franchise's inception, the club's colors – "wine and gold" – have become almost analogous to the team's actual name. The Cavaliers are the "Wine and Gold" in the same way that Ohio State is the "Scarlet and Grey," the University of Michigan is the "Maize and Blue" or the Oakland Raiders are the "Silver and Black."

But in the 50-plus years of Cavaliers history, the franchise has experimented with burnt orange, royal blue, bright orange, black, purple and pastel blue. And throughout the squad's history, there have been three notable uniform changes.

The first uniforms featured the feathered underscore of "Cavaliers" on both home and road jerseys. Those years also featured the birth of the Cavs iconic logo – a silhouetted figure of a jousting Cavalier, encircled by the words "Cleveland Cavaliers." The symbol is every bit as recognizable as the infamous "Chief Wahoo" and, thankfully, has survived through four decades of change.

Cleveland's second uniform style – made famous by the "Miracle of Richfield" team – featured gold home duds and "Marquette"-style horizontal white, wine and gold stacked piping along the sides. Those uniforms – and that era – were celebrated again by both the 2004-05 and 2015-16 teams.

In 1981, as the final remnants of the Miracle squad faded into the sunset, the Mike Mitchell-era team went with a metallic gold with a pair of horizontal stripes with the word "Cleveland" written above it in block letters.

But in 1983 – with the purchase of the team by Gordon Gund and the organization on the verge of big changes – the Cavaliers made a radical departure from its original colors and identity. This came in the form of the burnt orange and royal blue uni's with the word "CAVS" written across the chest. The "V" was designed like a hoop with a ball entering it, which also served as Cleveland's new logo.

The Cavaliers retained the colors – and slight variations on the look – throughout their final, and highly successful, years at the Richfield Coliseum. The burnt orange as the primary road color was replaced by the royal blue road uniforms in 1987 and the "CAVS" logo was replaced with the block "Cleveland" before the 1989 season.

This attire will forever be linked to the Lenny Wilkens era of excellence that featured the likes of Mark Price, Brad Daugherty, Larry Nance and Hot Rod Williams.

When the Cavaliers began play at then-Gund Arena in the 1994-95 season, there was once again a sea change from the previous look.

From the wine and gold of the '70s to the burnt orange and royal blue of the 80s, the Cavaliers went with pastel blue and black. Home uniforms were white, road black, with a jagged blue splash across the torso and double-lined lettering that said "CAVS" at home and "Cleveland" on the road, both outlined in orange.

The Cavaliers modified this look in 1997, sticking with the color scheme, but losing the incongruous torso splash. Instead, the uniforms featured a more streamlined blue and orange piping along the right side of the shirts and shorts. The futuristic lined letters remained.

But in October of 2002, Gund decided to bring Cavaliers fans back to the future. The new colors were announced on October 9, 2003 – the "new expression of wine and gold" – a crimson-hued wine color and a metallic, almost copper, gold. Dark blue, the secondary color, was a tribute to the Cavalier teams of the 1990s.

Since then, the Cavaliers have returned exclusively to the Wine and Gold – with exceptions for special occasions over the years.

The Wine and Gold will take on a new look this season, but their uniforms – and the doctrines that define the franchise – remain the same as the Cavaliers look towards a gleaming future just on the horizon.

NAMING THE CAVALIERS

Can you imagine Evan Mobley throwing down a dunk for the “Cleveland Towers”? How about watching Darius Garland driving through the lane for the “Cleveland Jays” or listening to the sage advice of longtime play-by-play man, Austin Carr – better known as “Mr. Forester”?

Doesn't quite work, does it?

One-half century ago, as part of a contest sponsored by the Plain Dealer, these were three of the five finalists in the search for Cleveland's first professional basketball team's new name.

But none of those three nicknames, nor the fourth – (“Presidents”) – had the combination of class and courage of the handle that eventually became the name of Nick Mileti's new basketball franchise – the Cleveland Cavaliers.

Back in May of 1970, that masculine moniker was provided by a then-29-year-old district manager named Jerry Tomko, who wrote an essay which, in part, read: “The name Cleveland Cavaliers represents a group of daring fearless men, whose life's pact was never surrender, no matter what the odds.”

(Little did he know that his words would also soon be lyrics in the Wine and Gold's now-iconic fight song from the same era – “Come On, Cavs.” The tune, penned by local radio personality Larry Morrow famously exclaims: “We'll never surrender/No matter what the odds.”)

After his retirement and relocation to San Diego, Tomko – the father of former major league pitcher, Brett Tomko – kept the winning essay from the PD in a safe box at his home.

“Actually, I wrote it in about 20 minutes,” laughed Tomko. “I went to pick my wife (Donna) up and I heard about the contest on the radio. There was a napkin and a pen sitting in the car and I wrote it. Then, when I picked my wife up, I asked her to proofread it.”

Tomko said he felt like “Cavaliers” had a chance when he heard the other four finalists.

“They picked five names and they had a vote on it. When the five names appeared – the other four didn't sound that good. The odds seemed to be getting better, but it wasn't a sure thing.”

Nearly 6,000 fans voted on the team's new name, and over a third preferred the alliterative “Cleveland Cavaliers” – who would soon be tipping off their inaugural campaign at the Cleveland Arena.

After being selected as the winner, Tomko received a pair of season tickets for the Cavs maiden voyage in 1970, but not the autographed basketball he was promised by Mileti at the time.

But the current Cavaliers kept the organization's original word – sending Tomko an autographed basketball in 2010, along with a commemorative plaque.

Now, five decades later, the Cleveland Cavaliers are one of the most respected and recognized franchises in sports.

Over those years, they've represented the gallant, swashbuckling image envisioned by Tomko quite well. And although the Eastlake native moved to a place 2,400 miles and two time zones away – (not to mention living in Laker Country) – he remained a fan of the club whose name he coined.

“I'm not one of those jump-off-the-bandwagon, who's-in-first-place type of guys,” said Tomko.

The Wine and Gold have gone on to great things – including taking the 2016 NBA title in epic fashion.

And now, after more than a half-century of existence, the franchise has changed uniforms, buildings, owners, players and coaches, two things haven't changed from the day Jerry Tomko wrote an essay on a napkin: They're still the Cleveland Cavaliers. And they still don't surrender, no matter what the odds.

The Cleveland Cavaliers and Rock Entertainment Group proudly present their

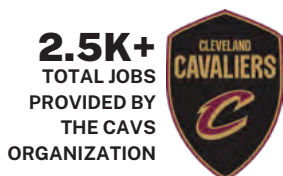

2021 COMMUNITY IMPACT REPORT

"This report embodies the spirit of 'For the Love. For the Land,' a call to action to embrace unity and come together in a common bond of love for each other and our city. Through our mission, and alongside all our incredible civic and community partners, we are very proud of all we've accomplished together and look forward to continuing our work to help build a better, bright future in the place we call home."

Nic Barlage, CEO

Cleveland Cavaliers, Rocket Mortgage FieldHouse and Rock Entertainment Group

Moondog

Passionate. Loyal. Paper-Trained. Moondog has a unique connection not just to the Cavaliers, but to all of Cleveland. Cleveland is known worldwide as the Rock & Roll city. Famed Cleveland radio disc-jockey Alan Freed coined the phrase "Rock & Roll" and sparked a music explosion in the 1950's. Freed often referred to himself as the "Moondog" and his listeners as "Moondoggers." The Cavaliers' Moondog is dedicated to following in the spirit of the original.

Alan Freed was innovative, fun-loving, passionate and controversial. Our ten-time NBA All-Star Mascot Moondog has proven to be the same.

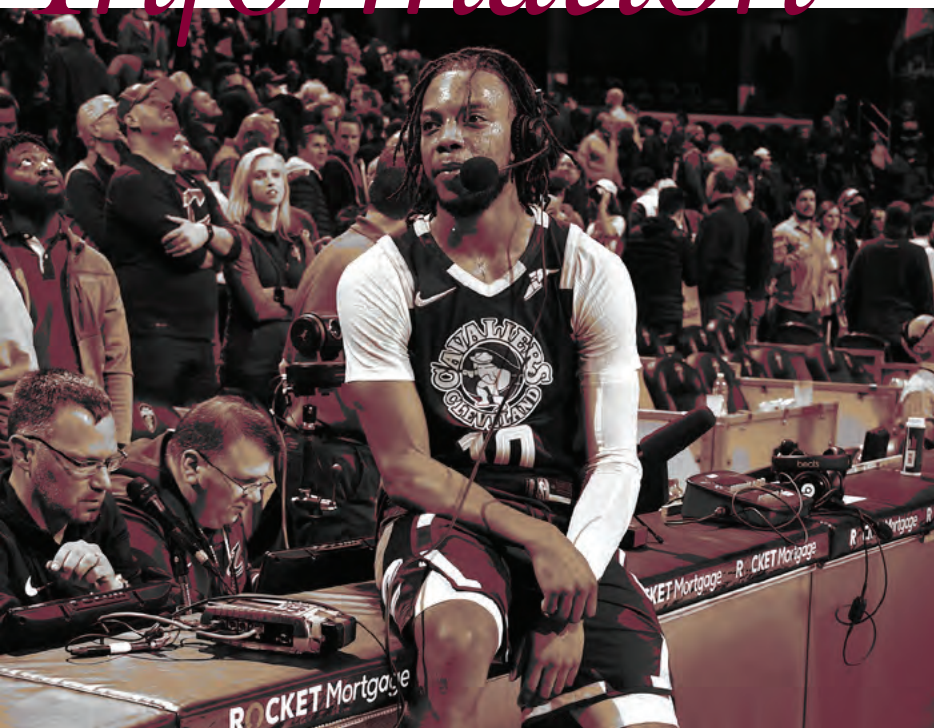

Sir C.C.

Historical. Hysterical. Sir C.C. is an original expression of the wine and gold, just like the jerseys unveiled in the 2010-2011 season. C.C. has been a Cleveland Cavaliers fan since the 1970-71 season and has been around supporting the Cavs throughout the history of the team. Our three-time All Star C.C. can be seen at every Cavaliers home game cheering on our team and energizing the fans, making sure that everyone's trip to Rocket Mortgage FieldHouse is one they will never forget! C.C. shares his love for Cavaliers basketball too by visiting Cavaliers Academy basketball camps, Junior Cavs basketball leagues, Wine and Gold United outings, and many more events all over Northeast Ohio.

To have Sir C.C. at your next event, email him at sircc@cavs.com, or check out his page in the fan zone at www.cavs.com

Media Information

Darius Garland talks postgame after a 24-point, 13-assist performance in the Cavaliers' 120-111 overtime win over the Los Angeles Clippers on March 14, 2022.

The Cleveland Cavaliers Basketball Communications Team welcomes you to the 2022-23 NBA season. It is our goal to provide a professional and productive working environment. To assist in your coverage of the Cavaliers, please note the following:

Media access: Media access protocols for practices at Cleveland Clinic Courts and home game coverage have changed across the NBA. All Cavaliers media availability – including practice, shootaround, pregame and postgame activities with players and coaches – will only be conducted with in-person media in attendance. Zoom will only be used if circumstances dictate.

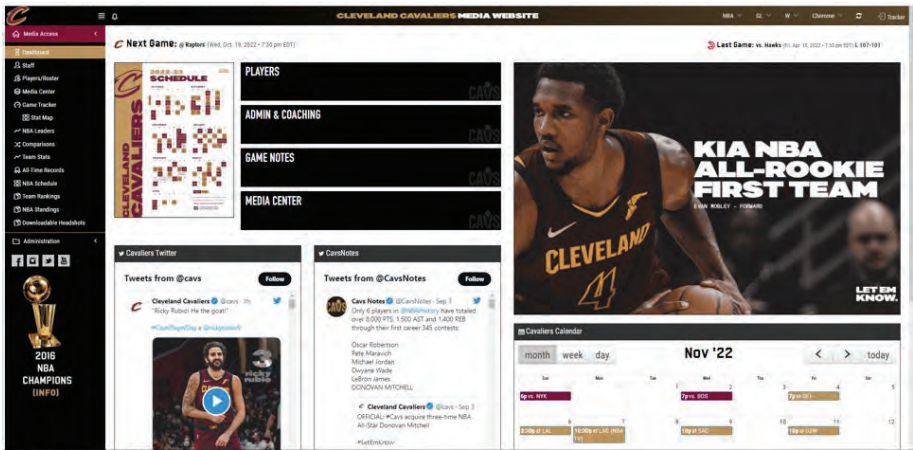

In accordance with the NBA, media will be credentialed for games under the same process as in previous seasons, except a Tier 1 level has been created for qualifying outlets. Tier 1 credentials will grant access to pre- and post-game locker room media availabilities at Rocket Mortgage FieldHouse. These credentials will be limited, and available to media outlets that regularly cover the team either by traveling consistently or attending most of a team's games and practices. Additionally, national media who cover the league on a consistent basis and select international media and broadcast partners will be eligible for Tier 1 credentials.

In order to qualify for Tier 1, media outlets must create original news content and have a standard editorial process in place to govern credentialed reporters. A media member must also be fully up to date on his or her COVID-19 vaccinations to be eligible for Tier 1 access or produce a negative result from a point-of-care test (e.g., Cue, Accula, antigen) or a "not detected" result from a lab-based PCR test collected within seven days of the game.

Media who do not fit the Tier 1 requirements will be given access to all other media areas, including the Fred McLeod TV Studio and Media Workroom and the visiting team interview room located across from the visiting team locker room (Green Room).

The Cavaliers Basketball Communications Team will distribute via email daily availability times for all practice and shootaround media availability sessions.

Cavaliers Media Website: To assist with your coverage throughout the 2022-23 season, the Cavaliers Basketball Communications Team has an interactive Cavaliers Media Website on <https://www.NBAOMG.com> (select the Cleveland Cavaliers logo). This site will virtually house pertinent media materials including the Cavaliers Media Guide, game notes, current and historical statistical data, live game tracker and player updates, Cavaliers PR & team Twitter feeds, postgame notes, credential request forms and more. Previously printed materials such as game notes, out-of-town scores, recaps and NBA rankings will no longer be available in the media workroom, as all information can now be found on the Cavaliers Media Website. If you do not have an account already established and need access, please email CavaliersPR@cavs.com for login information.

Credentials: You must have a Cavaliers credential (full season or single-game) to be admitted to Rocket Mortgage FieldHouse, and your credential must be visibly worn at all times. Credentials should be requested through the Cavaliers media website at HoopsOMG.com.

Your credential does not guarantee a seat. Please contact the Basketball Communications Team no later than 48 hours before a game to reserve a seat in the press seating areas. Single-game credentials can be picked up at the media entrance, located on the east side of Rocket Mortgage FieldHouse (off of East 6th street, adjacent to the Cavaliers Team Shop and facing the Gateway East parking garage). Photo ID is required to obtain your credential.

Season and single-game credentials are non-transferable and any unauthorized use will subject the bearer to ejection from Rocket Mortgage FieldHouse and the forfeiture of the credential. No autographs are allowed during media access periods.

Media members who are approved for credentials must adhere to any alterations to the Health and Safety Protocols as well as the zoning rules established by the Cavaliers and the NBA. If you are not feeling well or experiencing symptoms related to COVID-19, you will be required to remain at home and cover the game via the broadcast and the Cavaliers Media Website.

Please note that single-game credentials may be limited due to the available media workspace. A member of the Cavaliers Basketball Communications Team will respond and indicate if a spot is available for the game requested.

Media Entrance: All media members must enter Rocket Mortgage FieldHouse through the media entrance, which is located on the east side of the arena (across from Gateway East Garage) and opens two and a half hours prior to game time. If you are coming out of the Gateway East parking garage, crossing East 6th Street, you will see the Cavaliers Team Shop. The media gate is located just to the left (south) of the Team Shop. Several available options for parking are in close proximity to Rocket Mortgage FieldHouse.

Fred McLeod TV Studio & Media Workroom: This season, all media members will have access to the Fred McLeod TV Studio and Media Workroom. Seating will be assigned and reserved within this area as space permits, and all seats in the workroom will be equipped with electrical power and RFMH WiFi accessibility.

Media will be able to use the designated Media Elevator in the Three-Bank Elevator Lobby (located directly behind the media section, M104) on the main concourse to travel to and from the media section and Fred McLeod TV Studio and Media Workroom.

Media members who are not given a seat in the Media Workroom will be able to work from their seat in Section M104.

Seating: There will be reserved media seats located in Section M104 and will be assigned by the Cavaliers Basketball Communications Team. All seats will be equipped with electrical power and access to RFMH WiFi.

TV and Radio: Visiting television broadcast positions will be courtside, adjacent to the visitors' bench. Radio broadcast positions will be in the "Joe Tait Perch" (radio booth) in Section C108. If statisticians are desired, please make arrangements with the Cavaliers Basketball Communications Team at least 24 hours before game time. All requests for pregame or postgame interviews should be directed to the Cavaliers Basketball Communications Team.

Photographers: Still photographers will be able to shoot from the baseline locations this season and will be assigned a floor spot. Photographers are asked to keep off the side courts and to be considerate of the ticket holders seated directly behind them. Also, photographers are asked to wear rubber-soled shoes to protect the basketball floor and must have rubber lens shades for their cameras. All photographers that are assigned a floor photo lane will be required to wear a photo vest distributed by the Basketball Communications team and face masks. Floor positions will be given to outlets based on priority as designated by the NBA. Additional elevated photo space will be made available on a case-by-case basis or as space allows.

Parking: Full-season parking passes via SeatGeek will be distributed by the Cavaliers Basketball Communications Team on a limited basis. For those media members who receive full season parking privileges, the media parking area will be located in the Gateway East Garage.

If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact the Cavaliers Basketball Communications Team at (216) 420-2464 or CavaliersPR@cavs.com.

Radio Fred McLeod TV Studio & Media Workroom

The Cavaliers organization named the combined television studio and media workroom space at Rocket Mortgage FieldHouse the “Fred McLeod TV Studio & Media Workroom” on September 18, 2019 in honor of the team’s beloved 14-year play-by-play television announcer, who passed away unexpectedly on September 9, 2019. Given the indelible impact and legacy of Fred McLeod, and how he touched so many across the media and fan community, as well as the team he loved, the Fred McLeod TV Studio & Media Workroom serves as a lasting tribute to someone that was universally admired, respected and appreciated as a fellow media member and willing mentor to a countless number across the industry.

Before and after every Cavaliers home game, home and visiting team media members gather in the television studio and media workroom space on the event level of Rocket Mortgage FieldHouse to hear from, and interview, the Cavaliers head coach. The space is also used for many other media events and reporting elements throughout the year by attending media covering games and events for newspapers, magazines, television, radio, websites and other digital platforms, as they write and file their respective stories and coverage inside the walls of this important area.

A Strongsville, Ohio native, Fred served as the television voice of the Cavs since joining the team and FOX Sports Ohio in 2006. His NBA broadcasting career spanned 36 seasons, having spent 22 seasons with the Detroit Pistons, in addition to 14 overall with the Cavs (1979-80; 2006-19). The multi-regional Emmy Award winner called more than 1,000 games during his time with the Wine and Gold. His diverse and extensive sports broadcasting career also included time in the NFL (Detroit Lions) and MLB (Cleveland Indians and Detroit Tigers), as well as local television sports reporting and anchoring in multiple cities, including Cleveland and Detroit.

Fred was one of the most accomplished and respected announcers in the NBA and all of sports and was known for his love, passion and enthusiasm for his hometown Cavs and Cleveland. He was friendly and welcoming to all his fellow media colleagues, regardless of experience or outlet they represented, including up-and-comers who sought advice from him and appreciated his willingness to spend time supporting them. Fred made a lasting impression, so it is fitting that he will have this permanent space dedicated to his memory.

In connection with the Rocket Mortgage FieldHouse transformation project, the state-of-the-art TV studio and media workroom space was recently re-designed, expanded and updated for optimal use, media support, technology and efficiency.

Brad Daugherty

Bally Sports Ohio TV Analyst
JTG Daugherty Racing Co-owner

Brad Daugherty continues his duties as an analyst for Bally Sports Ohio, a role he has coveted since 2020. He will join John Michael for a number of games throughout the 2022-23 regular season on a rotational basis, along with Cavaliers legend Austin Carr and former head coach Mike Fratello.

Daugherty also played for the Cleveland Cavaliers for eight NBA seasons and was taken as the first overall pick by Cleveland in the 1986 NBA draft out of the University of North Carolina. A 1986–87 All-Rookie team selection, Daugherty averaged nineteen points and ten rebounds per game over his NBA career and retired as the Cavaliers all-time leading scorer (10,389 points) and rebounder (5,227). Daugherty's all time-leading scorer record stood until March 21, 2008, when LeBron James broke the point record against the Toronto Raptors. His leading rebounder record stood until December 9, 2008, when Zydrunas Ilgauskas broke the rebound record, again against the Raptors.

He played in 41 postseason games and led the Cavaliers as far as the Eastern Conference Finals in 1992. Daugherty was a five-time All-Star (1988, 1989, 1991, 1992, 1993). As part of the Cavaliers' 30th anniversary in 1999–2000, Daugherty was a unanimous selection to the All-Time Cleveland Cavaliers team.

Daugherty announced his retirement after the 1995–96 season. His #43 jersey, a number he picked as a tribute to NASCAR legend Richard Petty who fueled his interest in racing, was retired by the Cavaliers on March 1, 1997. In 2019, Daugherty was inducted to the Cavaliers Wall of Honor for individuals who played a critical role in shaping the franchise's history.

Daugherty is part-owner of JTG Daugherty Racing alongside Tad and Jodi Geschickter and Gordon Smith with NASCAR Cup Series driver Ricky Stenhouse Jr. The five-time NBA All-Star also joined NBC Sports as an analyst for pre-race and post-race NASCAR Cup Series coverage. A fixture not only on television, Daugherty has also regularly hosted shows on SiriusXM NASCAR Radio and SiriusXM NBA Radio.

In 1985, Daugherty tried his hand at owning a Late Model race team with his close friend and driver Robert Pressley. They won races and championships and climbed the ladder to the NASCAR Xfinity Series where they won their first race in the division during 1989. Daugherty also co-owned a NASCAR Truck Series team before partnering with JTG Daugherty Racing and progressing to the pinnacle of the sport.

After years of hard work in the NASCAR Cup Series, Daugherty's ownership dreams were finally realized when his team made the NASCAR Cup Series coveted 10-race Chase for the championship with a huge victory at Watkins Glen International in August 2014. That day, Daugherty was on air talent for the race broadcast and there was no way to control his excitement on air. He began jumping up and down, with a huge grin as he hugged fellow analyst Rusty Wallace and then he took off for Victory Lane. Instead of hoisting the trophy, he hoisted his driver (AJ Allmendinger) at the time off the ground as a big celebration got underway.

Today, the Black Mountain, NC-native continues his leadership role for JTG Daugherty Racing and his affiliation with BAM (Brand Activation Maximizer) in addition to his role as an NBC analyst for NASCAR. When he's not at the race track or on air, he's also has duties as the Chairman of the Cleveland Cavaliers Team Board and the NASCAR Diversity Board.

Mike Fratello

Veteran NBA coach Mike Fratello is one of the winningest head coaches in NBA history, ranking 22nd in both all-time regular season wins (667) and games coached (1,215). During his illustrious career, Fratello has coached at every level—from kids camps and high school to college, the pros and national teams representing Ukraine and USA. Along the way, Fratello undertook another important role on the sidelines as an NBA commentator and teamed up with some of the best in the business, including legendary play-by-play announcers Marv Albert and the “Birdman” Ian Eagle. Coach Fratello currently brings his wealth of basketball experience to the booth as an Los Angeles Clippers in-game analyst and a guest analyst for Bally Sports Ohio's Cavaliers Live pregame and postgame shows.

Born and raised in Hackensack, New Jersey, Fratello (whose father won the 1939 Golden Gloves middleweight title) proved to be a tough and talented young athlete. Fratello was captain of his football, basketball and baseball teams at Hackensack High School, and he attended Montclair State College (now Montclair State University) on a football scholarship. After graduation, he returned to his high school alma mater as an assistant coach for both the football and basketball teams. Fratello's strong work ethic, high sports IQ and gift for teaching quickly became apparent, and soon he was recruited to join Tom Carmody's coaching staff at the University of Rhode Island (1970-72). Fratello gained more valuable experience coaching at the collegiate level alongside Lou Campanelli at Madison College, now James Madison University (1972-75), and Rollie Massimino at Villanova University (1975-78).

Coach Fratello caught his NBA break when longtime friend and mentor Hubie Brown hired him as an assistant coach for the Atlanta Hawks in 1978. Fratello manned the sidelines with Brown for three years and with Kevin Loughery for one year before joining Brown on the New York Knicks' bench in 1982. Fratello returned to Atlanta to take over the reins when he was named head coach of the Hawks at the start of the 1983-84 season. Fiery and exacting, Coach Fratello spent seven seasons at the helm and steered the Hawks to five playoff berths, earning NBA Coach of the Year honors after leading them to a 50-32 record in 1986. He also captured the Central Division Title in 1987 with 57 wins, and he coached the East to a 138-133 victory in the 1988 All-Star Game.

In 1993 Fratello landed the head coaching position in Cleveland. Coach Fratello's Cavaliers made it to the playoffs four out of six seasons and finished with a winning 248-212 record overall. Known for their grit and grinding defense, the Cavs set the NBA record in 1995-96 for fewest points allowed per game (88.5) since 1954 (when the league first implemented the 24-second shot clock), and then topped their own record the following year, giving up just 85.6 ppg. In December of 2004, Coach Fratello inherited the 5-11 Memphis Grizzlies and turned the team around, seizing 45 hard-fought regular season wins. He built on that record the next year to capture 49 games and advance to the playoffs for a second consecutive season. During Coach Fratello's 15-year tenure as an NBA head coach, he compiled a 667-548 regular season record (a .549 winning percentage).

Capitalizing on his communication skills, Coach Fratello also carved out a successful career as a sportscaster, landing opportunities with NBC and TNT, as well as local networks covering the Pistons, Clippers, Heat and Nets games. Fratello got his start in this role when he was paired with “the voice of basketball” Marv Albert in the 1990-91 NBA season to form the main announcing team for the NBA on NBC. Albert dubbed Coach Fratello “The Czar of the Telestrator” for his creative way of diagramming basketball plays on screen and for his ability to break down offensive and defensive strategies with in-depth analysis. During his three-year stint with NBC Sports, Fratello also joined Bob Costas for NBC's coverage of the 1992 Summer Olympic Games in Barcelona. “The Czar” went on to work as an NBA analyst for Turner Sports and covered the playoffs from 1994-96, the regular season from 1999-2004, and the 2007 playoffs. From 2009-2013 Fratello again worked alongside Marv Albert, as well as Steve Kerr, Dick Stockton, Kevin Harlan and Reggie Miller, for TNT's exclusive Thursday night NBA coverage. He also made regular appearances on NBA TV before joining its NBA GameTime Live crew 2014-2019 to deliver game analysis and cover breaking news around the league.

In October of 2008, YES Network brought Coach Fratello aboard as a color commentator for the Nets, pairing him with play-by-play virtuosos Marv Albert and Ian Eagle as well as rising star Ryan Ruocco for nine seasons before Fratello moved to the studio for the 2017-18 NBA season to cohost with Chris Shearn, Nancy Newman and Bob Lorenz. In 2014, Fast Break with Fratello aired on FOX 8 News in the Morning, during which Coach Fratello previewed and reviewed the biggest Cavs games. Since 2016, Fratello has joined select FOX Sports Ohio (now Bally Sports Ohio) Cavaliers Live pregame and postgame shows as a guest analyst to provide commentary, break down the action and offer a coach's perspective. After having served as the lead color analyst for the Los Angeles Clippers from 1990 to 1992, Coach Fratello returned to their organization for the 2018 season as a rotating analyst. A respected basketball authority, Fratello continues to serve in this role with the Clippers, engaging and entertaining

Over the course of his commentating career spanning three decades, Fratello has garnered a number of accolades, including New York Emmy Award nominations in 2012, 2013, 2014 and 2015 for his work on YES. In 2014, Fratello was a member of YES's Nets broadcast team that won a New York Emmy for Best Live Sports Series. In 2015 Fratello took home the New York Emmy for Best Sports Analyst. And Fratello was a member of the Fox Sports Ohio broadcast team that won a Lower Great Lakes Emmy award for the Cavaliers Live pregame show, 2017 Playoffs & NBA Finals. Fratello was honored by his peers in 2022 when the National Basketball Coaches Association named him the 17th recipient of the Chuck Daly Lifetime Achievement Award.

Despite achieving success as a television personality, coaching was never far behind for Fratello. In 2011 his former Hawks player Alexander "Sasha" Volkov, then president of the Basketball Federation of Ukraine, invited Coach Fratello to head up their men's national basketball team at the 2011 FIBA European Championship. In 2012 Fratello returned to coach Ukraine in the EuroBasket 2013 Qualification Tournament and clinched a spot to compete in Slovenia the following year. At the 2013 FIBA European Championship, Coach Fratello led Ukraine to a 6-5 record, good for a sixth place finish, and earned an automatic bid to compete in the FIBA Basketball World Cup for the first time in Ukraine's history. Fratello coached the Ukraine National Team in the 2014 FIBA Basketball World Cup in Spain and helped Ukraine establish itself as a formidable competitor on the global stage.

Seizing on Fratello's international experience and success, USA Basketball named him head coach of the USA Basketball Men's National Team that went undefeated in the February 2020 and November 2020 FIBA AmeriCup qualifying tournaments to secure a berth in the AmeriCup 2022. Coach Fratello was honored to represent his country and to be an ambassador for basketball in an arena that showcased the power of sports to transcend borders and inspire future generations of athletes and fans.
